Call for Chapters

Emerging Trends in Literature and Social Sciences

Aims and Scope:

The aim of the book is to study emerging trends in literature and social sciences. Literature is boundless and many new authors have been experimented new style of writing in this field. Anand Neelakantan has discussed goodness of evil characters in his mythological works. Koral Das Gupta has focused on female mythological characters in her novels and talks about their courage in her novels. Amish Tripathi is different among them. Tripathi is different in the presentation of the mythological stories and earned name and fame worldwide. Some authors have concentrated on the field of history and produced considerable novels in the history of literature. Hence it is necessary to study new trends of literature. Social Science is one of the branches of science, devoted to the societies and the relationships among individuals within those societies. The field of Social Sciences has been a field of experimentation and data collection. This kind of research reveals latest data to the public. There is a wide scope to investigate problems in this field. The combination of emerging trends in literature and social sciences will provide a new insight to the readers.
