

Profile of Dr. Himadri Sekhar Dutta

Dr. Himadri Sekhar Dutta received his B.Tech degree in Electronics and Communication Engineering from Kalyani Government Engineering College, Kalyani, India in 2001, M.Tech. degree in Optics and Opto-Electronics from University of Calcutta, India in 2003 and Ph. D. in Technology from Institute of Radio Physics and Electronics, University of Calcutta, India in 2012 respectively. He visited and acted as visiting scientist in IMRE Singapore in 2008. He has been serving as Assistant Professor at ECE Department of Kalyani Government Engineering College, Kalyani, India since 2010. Before that he was a faculty of A. K. Chowdhury School of Information Technology, University of Calcutta, India for more than 6 years. He is now acting as the Chairperson of IEEE Young Professional, Kolkata Section and also was in the same post for two consecutive years (in 2016 and 2017) and actively participated in different activities conducted by IEEE. One R&D project funded by Department of Science, Technology and Biotechnology, Government of West Bengal, India is running under his supervision. His research areas include Medical Image Processing, Embedded Systems and Opto-electronic Devices. He has published more than 70 research papers in various international journals and conferences and reviewed papers for reputed Journals and international conferences.