

PROFILE SUMMARY

Assistant Professor - Business Administration, Management, Logistics and Supply Chain

Management | Teaching and Research Professional: (9 + Years of Experience): Teaching, Training and Mentoring • Technical Knowledge Transfer • Assessment and Evaluation • Administration • Curriculum Planning • Student Development • Research and Development • Skill Enhancement • Cross Functional Coordination • Lesson Planning • Research and Analysis • Reporting and Documentation • Communication, Team Management and Presentation Skills

An experienced educationist, Assistant Professor of Business Administration with PhD in Supply Chain Management and MBA in International Business; acquired 8 years of experience in teaching business administration to students from diversified backgrounds and cultures. Experience in the field of education and research and ability to provide academic and administrative leadership to the whole University or Institution. Possesses exceptional experience in evaluating and advising on publications, administration and planning, research, training, and teaching. Able to exercise influence and advocacy on behalf of the institution and its interests, through active engagement with external groups and individuals. Presented and published research works at international forums and other regional conferences. Active member of various professional societies related to logistics and supply chain management as well as business management.

Foster the highest quality of research performed by faculty and graduate students with expertise in driving the governance and administration to achieve objectives in a timely, inclusive and purposeful way. Academic credibility, intellectual curiosity and sympathy for the values and culture of the University, including its students and their concerns. Ability to generate and develop trust in a diverse, evolved and collegiate academic institution. Keenly interested in latest developments in Logistics and Supply Chain Management and taught several modules, including Principles of Logistics Management, Transport Management, Fundamentals of Business and Management, Operations Management, Procurement Management, Warehouse Design and Distribution Management.